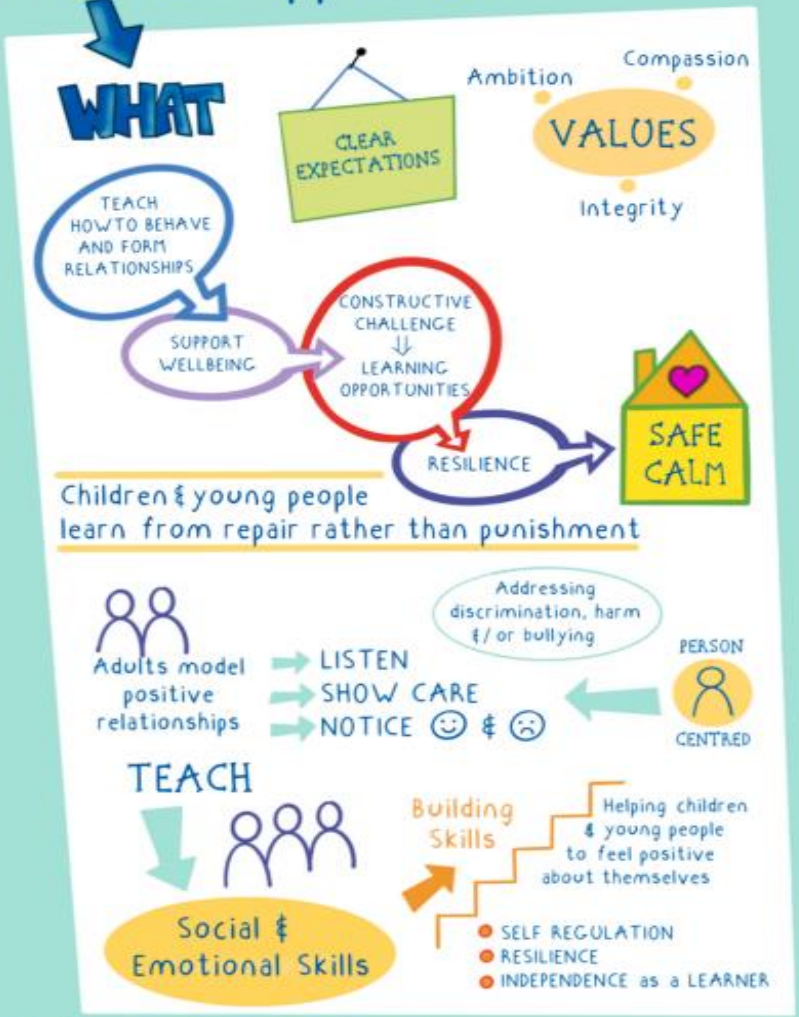
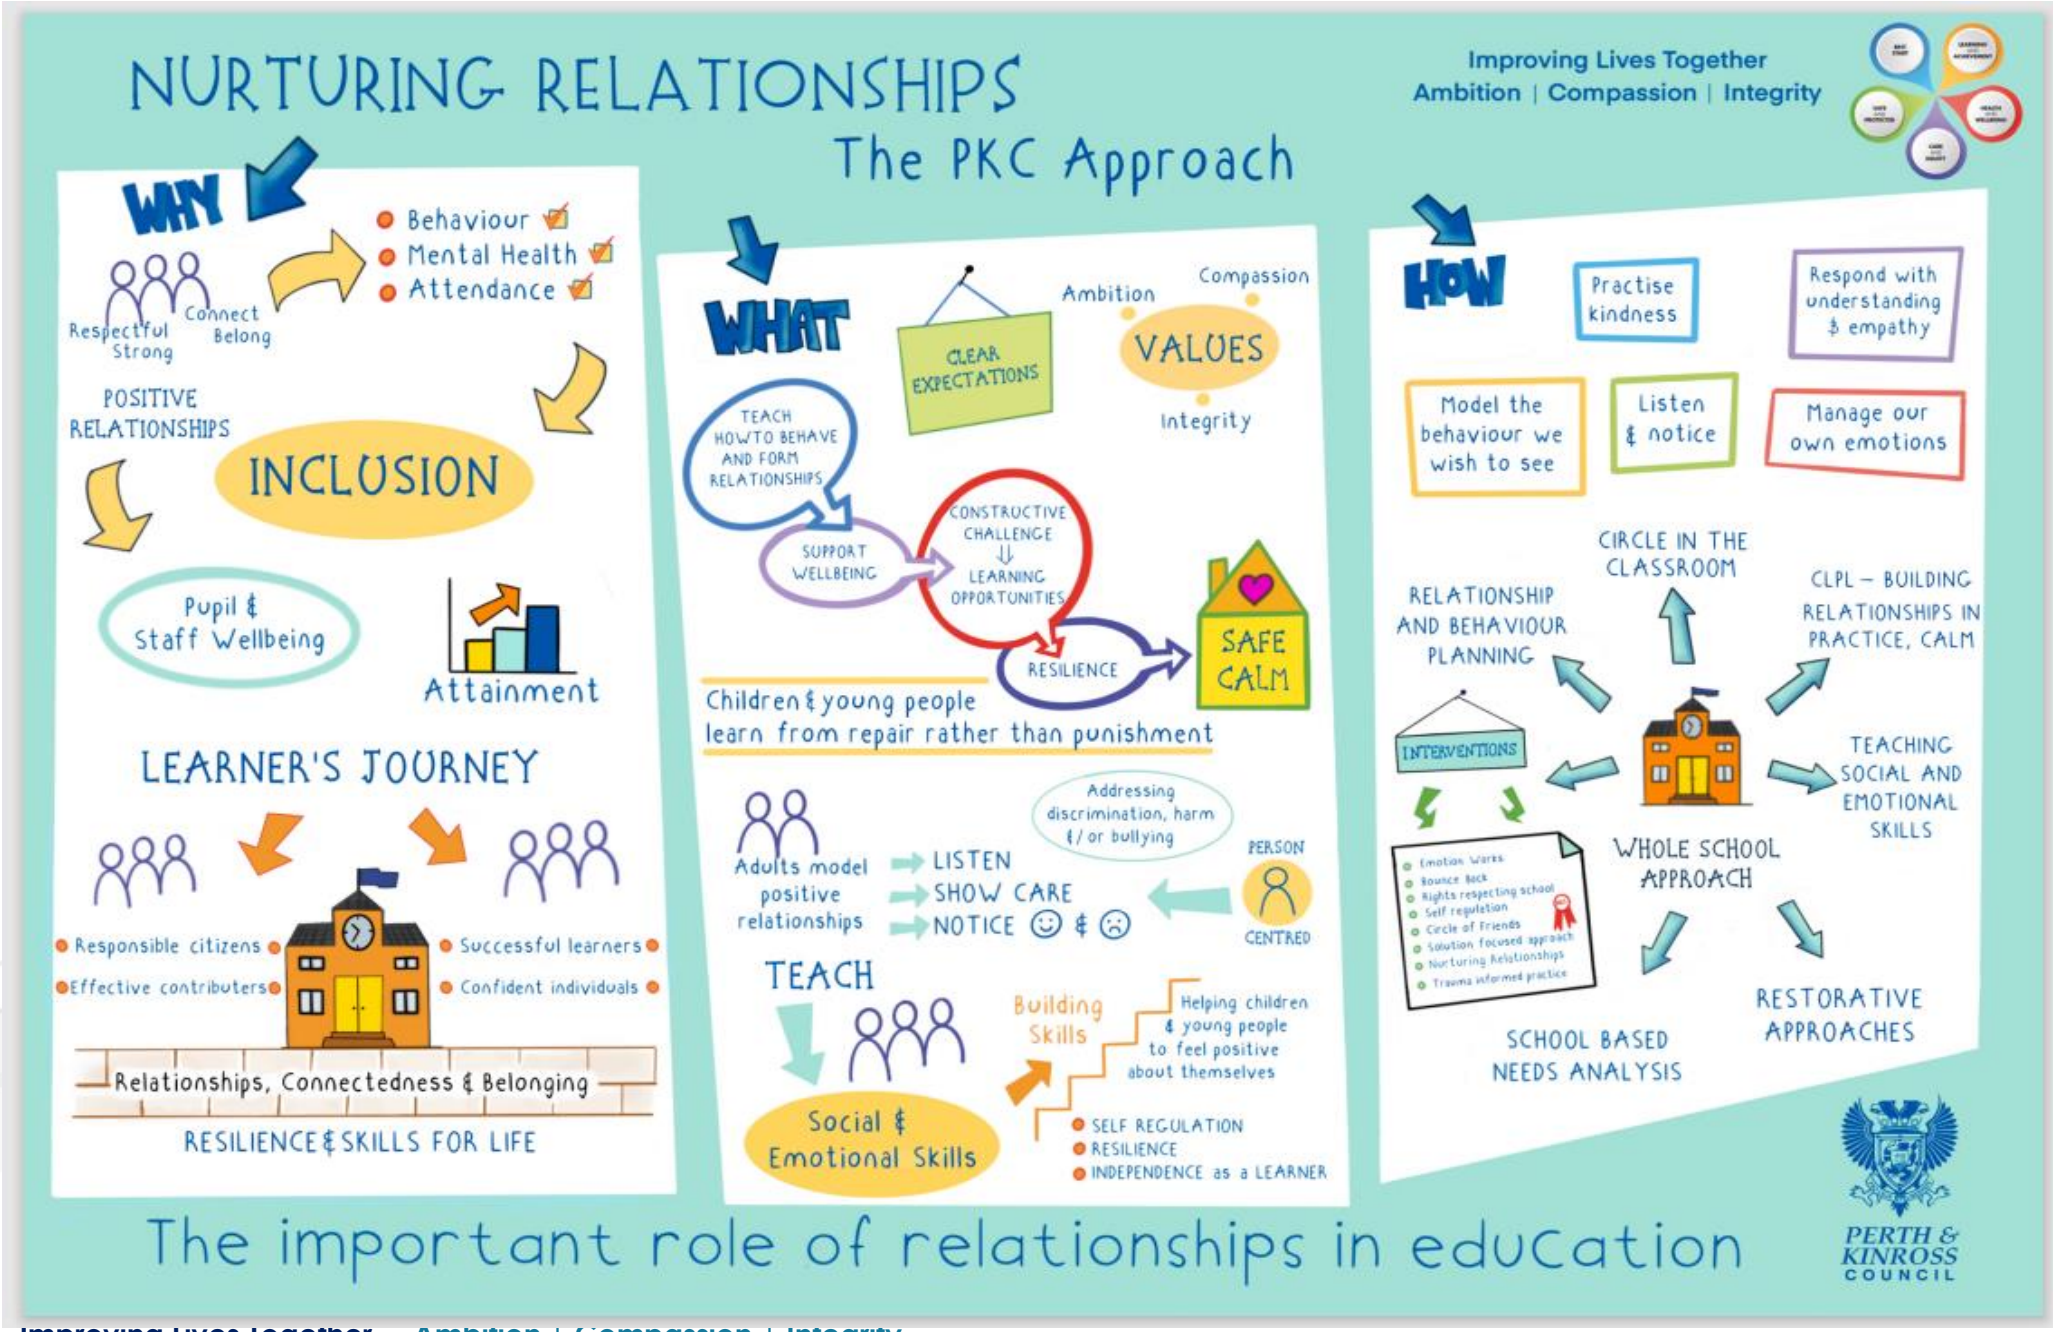
The PKC Approach



The important role of relationships in education



PERTH & KINROSS COUNCIL

How Parent Councils can help

ELC Settings/Schools responsibilities:

- Work with the ELC setting/school community to establish a respectful and inclusive ethos and values;
- Involve and consult meaningfully with children, young people, parents and the Parent Council when formulating or refreshing the school policy;
- Ensure children, young people and their parents are aware of the positive relationships and anti-bullying policies;

How Parent Councils can help

Supporting individual parents to:

- Be aware and respectful of the values and anti-bullying policy and practice in their child(ren)'s school(s);
- Work with others in the school community to help ensure a culture of inclusion where bullying cannot thrive;
- Engage through school Parent Forum/Parent Council or other appropriate forums to contribute to and learn about anti-bullying practice in schools;
