God's Loving Plan

God gives me life

The beauty of God's Creation is seen in me and in all living things

God delights in me

God has gifted me with life and with talents which he wishes me to develop fully for my happiness and for the good of others

God calls me to love

God invites me to reflect his love for me in my loving actions towards others

God's loving plan guides my choices

God's loving plan informs my conscience and helps me to make good choices in life and, when I don't, to seek his forgiveness for my sins.
